

Program Overview: Pre-apprenticeship

Pre-apprenticeships are available to high school juniors from surrounding high schools. They will come to STOBER to learn more about various career paths.

Students will be able to rotate through different departments and learn what skills and knowledge are required for various jobs in an areas.

Pre-apprenticeships can be completed in:

- Accounting (AP, AR, Filing)
 - Accounts payable,
 - Accounts receivable,
 - Filing
- Applied/Industrial/Manufacturing Engineering
 - Drawings and design,
 - Calculations,
 - Hands On
- Information Technology
 - Troubleshooting
 - Software deployment
 - Program updates
- Marketing
 - Photography,
 - Promotional materials,
 - Proofreading

Contact your guidance counselor to learn more about pre-apprenticeships.

At a glance

	Yes	No
Paid	✓
School paid for		✓
College Credit		✓
On the job experience	✓

Hours
Hours Worked	Up to 10
During school	Yes
After school	Yes

Wes McCloud and CJ Wenz run saws as part of their pre-apprenticeship and apprenticeship.

About STOBER:

Established in 1991, STOBER Drives, Inc. is a U.S. company with a German heritage. STOBER specializes in quiet, efficient, and durable gearboxes. With two unique lines in motion control and power transmission, STOBER has expanded into the global market for a wide variety of applications including packaging, food and beverage, machine tool, aerospace, and more. With excellent customer support, extended warranties, one day delivery, and exceptional products, STOBER is "geared to a higher standard!"

*Learn more by calling 606-759-5090
and asking for talent development or visiting www.stober.com/talentdevelopment*